PARKDALE-MAPLEWOOD COMMUNITY MUSEUM CELEBRATES 70 YEARS

The Museum was founded by Thomas I Spidell II (1873 - 1963)

Thomas loved to read and often wrote for the Bridgewater Bulletin. He was known locally as "Uncle Tom" and travelled to different parts of the world collecting unique curios. Every summer when he & his family visited Maplewood, he would bring part of his collection. His daughter used to say their car was so full of "stuff" they hardly had room for luggage.

Once a year a Field Day was held & Uncle Tom was allotted a room in the barn to exhibit his collection. In 1953 he said if the community would raise money to put up a building for a museum, he would donate part of his collection. They raised $300 and put up the building which now belongs to the 4-H Club.

The museum has evolved to include the Maccabee Hall, the Lloyd & Muriel Room, Aunt Dinah's Gift Shop & Tea Room, washrooms, storage & office space.

It was his dream to see the fulfilment of a Community Museum. We think he would be proud.

The museum hours are: Tuesday to Friday 9:00 am - 5:00 pm,
Saturday & Sunday by appointment. Closed Mondays.
